ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

A workshop on Research Presentation Skills aims to help participants effectively to communicate their research findings to a variety of audiences, whether academic, professional, or general public. The goal is to enhance both content delivery and engagement while ensuring clarity and impact.

A workshop on Pharmaceutical Research Presentation Skills would focus on enhancing the ability of researchers, students, or professionals in the pharmaceutical field to present their research findings effectively, specifically in the context of drug development, clinical trials, or Pharmaceutical Sciences. This workshop would incorporate scientific accuracy with the communication of complex data to both technical and non-technical audiences.

OBJECTIVES OF THE WORKSHOP

- ☐ Overview on Pharmaceutical Research
- ☐ Exploring correlations between scientific disciplines
- ☐ Develop Project goals based on actual or upcoming Societal challenges
